

The business was funded by the Competitiveness Program Action (NSRF 2021-2027) "SME Export Orientation". The Action aims to strengthen and support the export orientation of small and medium-sized enterprises and concerns the support of investment projects aimed at the exploitation and development of modern technologies and the upgrading of produced products and services provided.